Full Particulars of a Dastardly Killing.

Special to the Appeal ] BODIE, Aug, 1.—The killing of Deegen by Donnely still causes great excitement here, and there ', still danger of lynching. The shooting took place during the progress of a fire in Solerlings' ass ay office when Felix Donnelly approached William Deegan from behind and commenced shootir,g into his body. The shooting too's place during the explosion of cartridges in Stewart's burning drug store, and, except those who actually saw the shoot- melter and refiner in the Mint. ing, the throng of men and women who occupied the sidewalk supposed it was another box cartridges in course of explosion, several of which had just been placed in the house of Neptune Hose Company, and so rapid was the firing, that officer John Patty, who was standing ing a few feet in the street, hearing the first two quick shots, turned, and seeing what was going on, made a rush for Donnelly, but before he could reach him the assassin had emptied the other four chambers of his revolver. Patty at once disarmed Donnelly and es corted him to the branch jail This morning at one o'clock Under Sheriff Wilcox, fearing violence removed the prisoner to Bridgepor, and placed him in the county jail there.

Walker was called in soon after and saw at once that Deegan's death was only a question of minutes. He could do nothing fur. ther than administer stimulants. Deegan was shot at five minutes past eleven o'clock and expired forty minutes after being shot, being insensible from the time of reaching his room until death relieved him.

The most important part of this whole affair is that Patrick Coyle, a miner employed in the Bodie Con., who was standing in range, receieved one of the calls which missed Deegan, in the bowels a few inches below and to the left of the navel. Coyle was removed to the Occidental Hotel, and Dr. Deal called in, who attended the wounded man assiduously. But he died at 5:30. Ned Shunk was also wounded in the leg. It is claimed that the bad blood between the men arose from the fact that deceased had spirited a woman away from the town who was claimed by Don-

The Royal Marionettes were certainly a novelty and one that left a very pleasant impression behind The usual crowd for Christmas-gift matinee assembled on Tuesday, and they laughed and applauded without stint during the comical minstrel "first part." The quaint figures, moving heads, hands and bodies and walking like human beings are peculiarly ingenious, and the "dancing skeleton," introduced as finale of the minstrel show, is a piece of mechanicism not only very amusing, but truly remarkable in its delicate mechanism. Roars of laughter and applause followed it at each performance. The same may be said of the "ball tosser," the "dancing Turk" and other figures in the "variety" second part. and the "Humpty Dumpty" Clown and Pantaloon are far less tedious than the average real thing in flesh and blood. In short these purpets give a show that in many respects would put men and women to their highest trumps to equal.-Mobile

Naturalized Chinamen Denounce Blaine.

NEW YORK, August 1 .- A novel meeting was held last evening at 32 Pelt street, when the naturalized Chinamen of New York, and vicinity met and organized themselves into a political association. There were present about fifty Chinamen half a dozen American sight-seers and two Malays. All parties were denounced. particularly the Republican; led by that arch politician Blaine, who engineered estameful Anti-Chinese bill through Con-

The principal speaker at the Chinese meeting said: "Why can't we make our mark in politics as well as other races? Why can't we become substantial citizens like those from England, Ireland, Germany, and other European, Asiatic and even African countries? We had our diplomats, philosophers sages when those about us were half-naked savages. The Democrats are robbers and thieves, who will plunder and rob the United States Treasury. New York City is a good example of what they will do. As to the third and last party the Greenbackers. Well, they are too young yet. Ben Butler will ride them to the devil." The Chinese Association will meet again this month.

Murat Halsterd Says That New York is for Blaice.

NEW YORK, August 1 .- A Press New York special gives the text of a long dispatch sent by Marat Halstead to his paper, in which he says: "New York is no longer doubtful for Blaine. The Republican dissatisfaction does not amount to much. The Democratic revolt is far more serious. I do not over-state the matter when I say Blaine will come even with Cleveland in the City of New York and have an unparallelled majority in the country. The reports from strong Republican counties are that they will give increased majorities. There is no State more confidentially and intelligently claimed for Blaine than New York, and the current of public judgement and enthusiasm is all his way.
